Case 2:03-cv-00166-MCE-DAD Document 173 Filed 06/08/05 Page 2 of 2 Cohen intends to opine that there is some kind of "effective wage" he has calculated and that Plaintiffs' annual compensation exceeds what they would have been compensated according to his effective hourly rates. Cohen's testimony is inadmissible under Daubert v. Merrell Dow Pharmaceuticals, Inc., 509 U.S. 579, 113 S.Ct. 2786 (1993), and Federal Rules of Evidence 104, 403 and 702 on the grounds that: • Cohen's testimony is inadmissible because he is not qualified to offer his opinion, • Cohen's method of calculating an "effective rate" is unreliable as the lawful calculation of overtime to which Plaintiffs' are entitled is based on the "regular rate" as defined specifically by 29 U.S.C. 8 207(a)(1) and (e), 29 C.F.R. 88778.107- 778.109,

- Cohen's opinion is unreliable because it is based on incomplete information, and
- Cohen's method and conclusion do not fit the facts and material issues in this case.

For these reasons, Cohen's testimony and documents prepared by him will not assist the trier of fact and should be excluded from this trial.
